It Is Finished

After over a year in the making, the new CD is complete. We recently wrapped up final mixing and now it's off to the duplicators.

According to group member Troy Wade, it's been a long tough project in the making but we are really happy with how it turned out. "We really took our time and worked hard to get the vocals just right and it paid off" says Wade.

The new CD titled "No Boundaries" is a testament to how we as Christians should really have "No Boundaries" when it comes to sharing the news of Jesus Christ.

Keep an eye out for its formal release at the end of March.

News from the Markley's

A new addition is on the way to the Markley family. Dave, Tamera and the kids recently announced they are expecting another child in August.

Although they haven't found out whether it's a boy or a girl yet, they are so excited that God is growing their family.

Mom is doing great and Dad is so proud he's busting at the seams.

Congratulations to the whole gang and we'll keep you posted on their progress.
